

ATAC (Assistive Technology & Augmentative Communication Conference) 2011

19th December, 2011

ATAC 2011 was held from December 16th to 18th, with approximately 600 participants.

ATAC Conference serves as a place of dispatch for special supports in education, and for thoughts and techniques in welfare to support people with physical and mental imperfections. This conference also challenges the corresponding seeks their solutions.

ATAC 2011 discussed about education and welfare in the future on the subject "Human and Technology", introducing the advances in assistive technology.

Individuals with unique experiences served as walking encyclopedias at the Living Library, providing opportunities for direct communication conference to participants .

ICC Kyoto NEWS