

ATAC2009

Assistive Technology & Augmentative Communication Conference 2009

7 December

ATAC Conference 2009 has opened from 4 to 6 December, in Annex Hall, ICC Kyoto. The conference was established in 1996 for familiarizing Electronic Assistive Technology (e-AT) and Alternative and Augmentative Communication (AAC) for supporting handicapped people or the independent life of people of advanced years.

Living Library has taken place in the conference. Living Library is for being able to talk directory with the "Living Book" such as disabled person, ex drug addicted person, gender identity disordered person, etc.

ICC Kyoto NEWS

(Copyright ICC Kyoto 2009)